Assessment and reassessment procedure

10. (1) If the prescribed authority is satisfied that the return of turnover furnished by a dealer is correct and complete, it may, without requiring presence of dealer or requiring any evidence from him, determine the cess due from the dealer and the dealer shall deposit such assessed amount of cess in appropriate head of account in Government revenue.

(2) (a) If the prescribed authority is not satisfied as aforesaid but requires the presence of dealer or production of evidence from him, it may serve on such dealer a notice in the prescribed form requiring him or his representative to attend and produce on a date to be specified, any evidence that the dealer may rely on in support of his return.

(b) On the date specified in the notice or any other date as may be fixed by the prescribed authority under intimation to dealer and after having heard and examining such evidence as the dealer may produce and such evidence as the said authority may require on specified points, it shall, by an order in writing assess and determine the cess payable by the dealer.

(3) If a registered dealer fails to –

(a) furnish any valid return of turnover as required under-sub-section (1) of Section 11; or

(b) comply with the notice issued under sub-section (2) of this Section; or

(c) satisfy the assessing authority about the correctness of the returns furnished; or

(d) appear or produce or cause to be produced evidence on the date specified under sub-section (2), the prescribed authority shall, after giving reasonable opportunity to the dealer of being heard, determine the turnover of the dealer on which cess is to be imposed and assess the cess on basis of such determination and may in addition impose penalty of an amount not exceeding twice the amount of cess so assessed:

Provided that the penalty under this sub-section shall be imposed only if the prescribed authority is satisfied that the failure of the dealer is wilful, deliberate or unjustified and a reasonable opportunity of being heard has been given to the dealer.

(4) If upon information received, the prescribed authority is satisfied that a dealer liable to pay cess under this Act in respect of any period willfully failed to furnish any particulars or information required for the purpose of registration or having been registered fails to furnish returns within the period prescribed under sub-section (1) of Section 9, the said authority shall, after giving the dealer a reasonable opportunity of being heard, assess, according to its best judgment, the amount of cess due from the dealer for such period or any subsequent periods and in addition, may impose a penalty of an amount not exceeding five times the amount of cess so assessed:

Provided that no penalty under this sub-section shall be imposed unless the prescribed authority is satisfied that the failure of the dealer was willful, deliberate or unjustified and unless a reasonable opportunity of being heard is given to the dealer.

Explanation.- For the purpose of sub-section (4) as the case may be , the proceedings shall be deemed to have been initiated when a notice is served or deemed to have been served on the dealer.

Procedure of payment of cess or penalty

11. (1) The cess admissible from a dealer as shown in any return or revised return furnished by him under Section 9 and cess and penalty as due under Section 10 shall be paid in the manner prescribed by or under sub-section (2) of Section 9.

(2) The amount of the cess and penalty assessed as due from the dealer under sub-section (2) and (3) of Section 9 or under sub-section (3) and (4) of Section 10 after deducting any amount paid by him along with the return under sub-section (2) of Section 9 shall be paid by him in such manner and within such time as may be specified in the notice of demand in the prescribed Form issued by the prescribed authority; the date so specified being not less than 30 (thirty) days from the date of service of the said notice:

Provided that the said authority may in its discretion and for reasons to be recorded on application of the dealer extend the date for such payment or allow the payment to be made in instalments as may be determined by it.

(3) If a dealer has failed, without any reasonable cause, to deposit the amount of cess together with the penalty, if any, by the date specified in the notice issued under sub-section (2) or by the date extended by the proviso thereto, interest at eighteen percent per annum compounded on a quarterly basis, shall accrue and be charged on such amount from such date and such interest shall be treated as if it were cess due under this Act and shall be paid by the dealer in the prescribed manner:

Provided that interest shall not accrue or be charged on any amount the recovery of which is stayed under sub-section (5) and (6) during the period the stay operates.

(4) Any amount of cess, penalty or interest due from a dealer which remains unpaid may be recovered on application by the prescribed authority to the Judicial Magistrate of the first class who shall realize it as if it were a fine imposed by him:

Provided that where during the proceedings under this sub-section the amount of cess, penalty or interest due from a dealer is reduced as a result of appeal or otherwise, the prescribed authority shall inform the dealer accordingly and the authority before whom proceedings are pending and the amount reduced shall be deemed to be substituted for the amount originally intimated to the authority.

(5) If any dealer is aggrieved by the imposition of cess, penalty or interest under-sub-section (3)and (4) of Section 10, he may prefer an appeal in writing to the next higher authority to the prescribed authority as notified by the State Government as per procedure laid down in Section 18.

(6) Where an appeal against or an application for revision of the assessment of cess or levy of penalty or interest is entertained, the appellate or the revisional authority as the case may be, may on application stay recovery of the cess, penalty or interest in whole or in part subject to such conditions as it may impose till such date as it may direct:

Provided that the stay of recovery so granted shall stand vacated on the date the appeal or the application for revision is finally decided or on such other date as the appellate or the revisional authority may direct.

(7) In case of individuals who brings such items that attract cess under this Act from outside the State, the cess admissible shall be levied at the check-post by the Department authorized to collect the same as notified by the Government.

Person authorized to collect cess from customers

12. (1) No person other than a registered dealer shall collect or recover from any person any amount towards cess or purporting to be cess under this Act on the sale of goods or services.
(2) No registered dealers shall collect from any person any such amount except in a case in which, and to the extent to which, such dealer is liable to pay cess under this Act.
(3) Nothing contained in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall relieve a registered dealer from his liability for the cess under this Act.
